Arnesby News Sheet – 14th January 2022

Peter Welton

Myself and our sons, Matthew and Nato, would like to express our gratitude for the many cards and letters that have been sent to us from villagers, and to those who have visited, following the recent death of Peter. The kind words of condolence and offers of support that have been expressed are of great comfort to us. It has been good to hear and read of their memories of Peter, his gift of storytelling and his infectious love of life.

We miss him dearly.

Liza

Peter's funeral will be at Countesthorpe Crematorium on Monday 17th January at 1pm, preceded by the funeral car doing a circuit of the village from 12.20pm.

Library Van – Tuesdays 18th January & 15th February

Lutterworth Mobile Library comes to Arnesby on the third Tuesday of every month and stops near the village green on St Peter's Road from 10.35am – 11.05am.

It's easy to join the library, then a good selection of books for adults and children is available to borrow and return.

Arnesby Book Club – 7.30pm

The Book Club is a friendly group of people from the village who read a chosen book each month and then meet (socially distanced) in each other's houses to discuss the book. We don't take it too seriously and we would welcome new members to join us regularly or for an occasional visit.

Mon 17th Jan – Bring and talk about a book of your choice at Arnesby House, St Peter's Road (Jenny Lees)

Mon 21st Feb – "Call for the Dead" by John le Carre at Cambridge House, South Close (Brian & Sue Spriggs)
